Re: United States v. Robert Alexander, 19 Cr. 164 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

On February 11, 2021, the Court granted Robert Alexander's request that he be permitted to travel to Nashville, Tennessee from February 16-18, 2021 (Dkt. 58, "Mr. Alexander's Initial Request"). I respectfully submit this letter to amend Mr. Alexander's Initial Request because, in light of the snow storms that are occurring in Nashville and other parts of the Midwest region, Mr. Alexander has had to cancel his meetings that were scheduled in Nashville during this time period. Accordingly, we request that Mr. Alexander instead be permitted to travel to Nashville from February 23-25, 2021. The Government does not object to this request, and the Pretrial Services Office for the Southern District of New York takes no position on this request.

The conditions of Mr. Alexander's pretrial release currently restrict his travel to the Southern District of New York, the Eastern District of New York, and the District of New Jersey. As set forth in Mr. Alexander's Initial Request, he intends to fly to Nashville on February 23, 2021 to attend meetings relating to a potential business opportunity, as well as to meet with various individuals in connection with preparing his defense in SEC v. Alexander, 19-CV-1161 (JPC). Mr. Alexander will be accompanied by Peter Gleason, his counsel in SEC v. Alexander, during all of these meetings in Nashville. Thus, Mr. Alexander needs permission to travel to the Middle District of Tennessee during the period from February 23-25, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,
